Roxsane Tiernan

Roxsane was born and raised in the Greater Vancouver area. She became an international educator teaching high school and marketing for the district in Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan and Mexico.

She is a Member of the Federation of Canadian Artists (FCA) showing in over 70 juried shows. Roxsane studied Applied Arts at Capilano College in the mid-seventies and started painting seriously in 2000 after joining the FCA and Burnaby Artists Guild. She enjoys the challenge of interpreting local nature using chigiri-e (Japanese torn paper collage). Roxsane offers workshops and lessons in this technique even in Finland and Manitoba.

Roxsane joined the North West Collage Society which is centered in Seattle. Her work was featured on their posters and invitations. She has won several awards locally and internationally, mostly for mixed media or chigiri-e pieces.
