Creating art has always been a part of my life along with raising a family and having a career. However it became a serious focus when I retired in 2006. Now living in West Kelowna, I spend most days painting landscapes that usually include Okanagan Lake and vineyards. The Okanagan Valley is a never-ending source of subject matter. I can walk across the road from my house to some spectacular views.

Acrylics are my favorite medium and I start out my landscape paintings with a vivid wash of magenta. Never far away from experimentation, I often explore different processes using charcoal and pastels with acrylic mediums. This has led to producing a nostalgia series from the 1930's and 40's using old family photos as inspiration.

I am an active member of the Federation of Canadian Artists, Central Okanagan Chapter and I paint on a weekly basis with the Brushstrokes Club of West Kelowna.

I've subscribed to The Artist's Journal for several years. It is an incredible resource for every art event in the province of BC.
