

Subscriber profile: Pepe Hidalgo

Spanish artist, Pepe Hidalgo, recently moved to British Columbia. He has lived in Metro Vancouver for four years, presently living in North Delta.

Pepe has been painting for almost half a century, beginning in his adolescence years. He prefers acrylic, but also uses oil, and he creates pencil drawings. His preferred topics include Mythology, Abstract, Still Life, and he is presently working on "The String Theory."

Pepe has received several awards in Canada, including:

Federation of Canadian Artists, Honourable mention for his painting "Zeus Kidnapping Europe."

Federation of Canadian Artists, First Place for the painting "La Menina."

Pepe is currently showing his work at the following Galleries:

The West Vancouver Community Art Council, Silk Purse Arts Centre, "String Theory in Still Life," June 13 until July 2.

Place des Arts in Coquitlam, "Evolution of Still Life in Spain," Oct 13 - Nov 10.

The Abbotsford Community Art Council, "Through My Eyes," Sept 16 to Oct 17.

Pepe has been an Artist's Journal subscriber for two years, appreciating the information about where he can exhibit his work.

For more information about Pepe, visit his website: www.pepehidalgo.es
Contact Pepe at 604-358-4179 or e-mail: pepe.m.hidalgo@gmail.com